CHICAGO, July 11, 2014 -- On average, a child spends 32 hours a week in school. That's a third of a childhood, and many of those hours are spent in a variety of school environments - from the nurse's office to the playground. "Time in school is precious for children," said Katherine Leggett, RN, school nurse, Brown Deer Area Schools. "And yet we know how important the school nurse is to the success of children." A recent study from Children's Hospital of Michigan, University of Michigan and
