On a rainy Sunday in late June, Ruth Keyes was looking for something fun to do to make the waiting less stressful for the families of patients at the Hospital for Sick Children. She decided to go walking — all the way from the main campus of the hospital in Toronto to its offshoot facility in the west end. She had a lengthy list of requests for families who come every day for their children, including theatre tickets, ice cream and gourmet meals. She even jokingly offered to clean people's houses. Trying to cheer families up Keyes, who works at SickKids as the daily events coordinator, admitted she didn't ask for much for herself. "We're here to try to make the waiting less stressful for the families," she said are probably not as beautiful, just different. Here are 9 interesting facts you probably didn't know about Tokyo: 1. Tokyo used to be a sleepy fishing village. (Photo credit: hainan) Tokyo was founded by the shogun Tokugawa Ieyasu in 1603, and was originally called Edo. Edo later became the largest city in the world, but was eventually forced to close due to soil erosion. In 1870, Tokyo became the nation's capital. 2. Tokyo is a city of history and tradition.

(Photo credit: fey252) Many of the famous landmarks and structures in Tokyo have a rich history. For example, Tokyo's Shibuya Crossing was built in 1921. 3. Nearly 70% of Tokyo's inhabitants do not have a high school diploma. (Photo credit: digi_black) The population of Tokyo is 18.5 million, which means over two thirds of residents have a low-to-middle class job. This high number is because Tokyo's residents do not live as long as people do in other developed nations. 4. Tokyo is one of the most popular tourist destinations in the world. (Photo credit: drymar26) Tokyo is the most visited city in Japan, attracting 12.2 million visitors a year. 5. Tokyo has the world's first drive-in movie theater, in 1933. (Photo credit: deko_j) In 1934, the city introduced the first “drive-in theater” in the world. Instead of coming in a car, users arrived on foot and parked their vehicles in a nearby lot. 6. A pachinko parlor has roughly the same value as a Jaguar. (Photo credit: arinomi) A Japanese pachinko parlor costs about $700,000. This is roughly the same value as a new Jaguar. 7. Self-defense school teachers carry guns in Tokyo. (Photo credit: Ifroogie) Self-defense teachers do not carry guns in all schools. The teacher who was assaulted has been carrying a gun at all times since he joined the class. 8. No government in the world has more than 30 million people. (Photo credit: megawaomorits
