Pet Squad Racing is a tiny game designed for one or more players, in which you (or your pets) race against each other to try to be the best. Pet Squad Racing is a cute, fast-paced, challenging and fun game that keeps you playing for hours and hours! The idea behind the game is based on the idea of "playing" with your favorite toys and pets! You get a toy vehicle and a little pet (can be a dog, cat, pig, fish, robot etc.) You play with this toy vehicle in a room of your own. There is only one room, but all players are independent from each other. But, you can't drive as fast as you would in other racing games! Instead, the driving feels like a real racing game and you can even feel the bumps. So it's all up to you, whether you actually want to play with your small pet or rather using it as a distraction, just for fun? The idea behind the game is to have fun with your pet, however, you can also use your pet as a distraction, to avoid dying, for more concentration on the game or whatever you like! Whether you are going alone or with your friends, you don't need anyone's permission to play, there are no rules, no score to aim for and no winner. It's all about having fun! Find your favorite pets and vehicles and start racing now! It's you, your friends and your pet all ready for this awesome racing game! Key Features: Simple controls, no learning curve! Awesome soundtracks with animated trophies 2 (or more) game modes, single race and multiplayer Race against your friends in LAN (only local games, no Internet) Challenge mode: complete tasks to unlock items Play with up to four players Your vehicle and the room that you play in are all yours. Upgrade the room with new stuff! You can use the room without a pet (vehicle and room are the same) You can even unlock as a different character! Up to 4 players Easy to learn, hard to master No time limit (though it feels like it when you fail miserably) Remix your own track with custom map pieces! Your own pets Your own rooms If you don't like the current rooms, feel free to create new ones with your own design! A game for small and big players! You c9d1549cdd

I have tried this string test = "Text string"; string[] items = test.Split(new Char[] {'', null }, StringSplitOptions.RemoveEmptyEntries); This works for the cases where all items are non-null and non-blank. However when there are null values I get an IndexOutOfBounds exception. I've tried making the array index 4 instead of 5 like this: string[] items = test.Split(new Char[] {'', null }, StringSplitOptions.RemoveEmptyEntries); But that doesn't seem to be the issue. I'm not sure what I'm doing wrong. A: To split on spaces, put a leading "^" character in the character class: string[] items = test.Split(new[] { '^','', null }, StringSplitOptions.RemoveEmptyEntries); I'd probably also add a space after that to make it unambiguous. A: Change it to be a single character which isn't in the split, and null isn't a char, so replace string[] items = test.Split(new Char[] {'', null }, StringSplitOptions.RemoveEmptyEntries); with string[] items = test.Split(new Char[] { '^','', null }, StringSplitOptions.RemoveEmptyEntries); If there's one piece of advice that dads everywhere can agree on, it's "Don't put any fertilizer down until you get to the end of the yard." That's a vital piece of home maintenance advice, because too many gardeners neglect the root zone and later find their soil has been ravaged by a plant disease that weakens plants. There are a variety of home remedies available to treat and prevent the infection, but the best option is to address the root zone issues early on. Preventative remedies also limit

What's new in Pencil Vs. Eraser:

, the very first, officially licensed documentary series on the millions of fans who love Mortal Kombat. An Unauthorised Documentary; This is MK!. Saturday, May 30, 2008 This is MK! - Revelation : Kiss of the Octopus Kiss of the Octopus has been one of the best MK characters, the main reason being that it has one of the best movesets for a fighting game character of all time. Also, it was one of the reasons why I loved it so much. The move is called "Octopus Strike" and it is performed by doing any of the following: standing on his/her neck, thrusting his/her hand into his/her opponent's chest or by planting his/her knees into his/her opponent's stomach. Here we have the second of three ideas for use of this move, the third being "Octopus Rush". Now "Octopus Strike" is just the kickstarter move, but it doesn't really do anything in and of itself unless you use any of the variations. But... "Octopus Strike" and "Octopus Strike Special" have different properties. The flying "Octopus Strike" and "Octopus Strike Special" have three different abilities. The "Octopus Strike" has infinite range and only one counter, which is a sidekick. The"Octopus Strike Special" has infinite range (3m, like the moving version) and can be dodged like a normal and can be cancelled out like a normal. The hitbox for "Octopus Strike" is very shallow, which makes it so that, if timed correctly, if your opponent is in the front of his/her head, it will send him/her flying back and the opponent won't counter it, and you don't lose meter. The distance it goes is at least 6m (depends on how tall you are) and can go as far as 15m. But, again, you can evade it (get into the range) and cancel it out (if you time it right when you take the hit). The "Octopus Strike Special" has more range, but it is not infinite (it has a maximum range of 5m). Although it can be evaded, it can only be cancelled out by a light tap. (No "ko punches" as MK3 did, as those were cancelled out by special 1 and special 2 meter punches) "Octopus
