Loelia Harris Loelia Harris and her young family relocated to the Foothills from the Southern Suburbs this year. Since then she has been engaged in the school District and on the regional Body of Deacons, She loves being busy. Loelia is a strong advocate for girls in STEM, science, technology, engineering and mathematics- fields with a lot of room for growth in her area. She has had a long career in journalism but is looking to see what else there is to do in life. She hopes to focus on leadership, work with her family and help her young son explore his many interests. "Our church is the heart of our lives, It is where our son's elementary school is, where he is confirmed and where we are married. The Walsers are great people and continue to be an active part of our lives. It is where we met." Excerpt from the Book: There are no words to express how great it is to have a church family who loves you, hugs you, is never too busy to take time to pray for you, and is there when you need them the most. A church family is what makes life worth living. "Strong Church Families" is more than a hymn. We have often wondered about the church family and why we should continue to give, our time and talents, to a church we do not attend. We have prayed about this so much as we researched this book that we think other churches need to read it as well. This book is not intended to condemn non-members. Rather, it is written for the members of churches that are loved and appreciated. Our family attends several different churches. Some are members of our home church, however, we do not feel like we are family members with them. We believe all members of a church are family members. So, what is the difference? It is simple, at home, we are family. We share meals together 6d1f23a050
