November 19, 2008 - and Vin Diesel's own game development house Tigon Studios casts players as an award-winning helmsman modeled after Diesel himself. Gameplay. During the development process, the game became even more realistic, and the game got even more weapons, more enemies, more special effects and more explosions. The game currently has more features than any other first person shooter game to date. There are about 100 weapons in this game that you can get familiar with as soon as you start the game. The game also has new types of equipment, such as a grenade launcher, machine gun belts and grenades. 0946cee1be
