"I think the challenge [for the NCAA tournament] was creating a tournament that's truly equitable," McCollum said. "That starts at the first level. "You feel the same way as a 'first-timer' as you feel as a high-major program. I think it's going to be the best experience in the country." Some fans who say they're fans of lower-level programs aren't always welcomed at higher-level venues. "It's hard to turn a blind eye to the fact that the teams aren't quite of the same caliber, but if you're truly committed to watching the tournament in its finest form, I think it's wonderful," McCollum said.
