That call came from a phone located at the home of 24-year-old Casey Loudermilk in Troy, Ohio. The caller indicated that not only was a 4 year-old girl being abducted but also that Casey may be heading to Fort Wayne, Indiana with the child. Law enforcement quickly knew that this was a serious situation and immediately began trying to locate and save the life of the child. Meanwhile, numerous local law enforcement officers had gathered in Fort Wayne and another in Clay, Ohio looking for the missing child, who apparently had been abducted along with her mother. Shortly before 11:30 am, a witness called the police dispatch center and said that a young woman with a young child was walking in the area of an apartment complex on North 20th Street. The witness said that the woman and child seemed to be lost. Within
