

Lela Star Wedding

Penthouse Pet Veronica Sandoval Morales aka Lela Star began her career with the Miami, Florida based amateur adult production company BangBros and moved to Los Angeles in 2006. In August 2007 she got breast implants and her cup size increased from a natural 34C to 36C. In 2011 she had her implants removed.

Star debuted in the Hustler-produced Barely Legal 18th Birthday after being discovered by agent, Jim South. She was in the industry for a year and appeared in more than 40 titles before she became a contract star for ClubJenna in June 2007. Originally from Miami, she moved to Los Angeles to pursue her career full time.

Her first movie under the ClubJenna contract was Lela Undone, where she is featured in three scenes. Star performed her first anal scene in her second release under the contract, Pinup Perversions.

She made a cameo appearance in rapper Kardinal Offishall's music video "Set It Off".

Lela has had a bit of a fascination with plastic surgery having had breast implant surgery in 2008. Within a few years, Lela had turned into a giant mess of butt implants and lip injections.

In August 2011, Lela Star announced on her Twitter feed that she has married and chosen to retire from the porn industry.

Since the announcement of her retirement, she has returned to porn with at least two scenes for Brazzers as of September 15, 2014. The first scene released was "Persuading Lela," the second was "Under the Desk."

Lela most recently returned to do an Only Fans video with which began with her sucking off shemale superstar Chanel Santini. After some kissing, the TS fucks Lela.
