You will be unable to use your MLB Shop gift card to purchase Giants tickets or ballpark concessionaires. Digital gift cards can be added to a mobile wallet and used in-store or online. Where can I get a gift card to buy a gift card? All gift cards are valid. Many stores, restaurants, and venues across the country sell them, and they can be used for almost any purpose. Gift cards can be purchased from a variety of drug, grocery, retail, warehouse, and convenience stores in a variety of denominations. The past has seen customers purchasing a gift card and then using it to make purchases from MLB Shop. It should be noted, however, that MLB Shop recently changed its policies and now only allows customers to purchase the gift card and then use it to shop at its physical locations. It is unfortunate that MLB Shop does not allow customers to use gift cards to purchase Giants tickets or ballpark concessionary merchandise, as this eliminates an opportunity to purchase a gift card that can be used for a variety of purposes. Customers who purchased MLB Shop gift cards from MLB Shop are also disappointed that MLB Shop does not allow them to convert their gift cards into Giants gift cards, as this limits the value of their gift cards. The Toronto Blue Jays gift card can be used to purchase tickets to Blue Jays home games at the Rogers Centre. Terms of the agreement were not available, but industry sources put the deal at roughly $500 million. It will include only Topps' name and sports and entertainment division, not the company's candy and gift cards line, one source said. "With trading cards and collectibles being a significant pillar of our long-term plans to become the leading digital sports platform, we are excited to add a leading trading cards company to build out our business," said Rubin. Eisner called the Topps brand a "jewel in the Fanatics portfolio," adding Rubin is the "perfect entrepreneur" to move the sports division forward. Tornante will retain Topps' gift card and candy lines, including Bazooka bubble gum. Fanatics, which reached an $18 billion valuation in 2021, wants to expand the trading card business with more via direct-to-consumer commerce. For example, should collectors purchase a trading card, they'll be able to insure the asset, grade, store and even put cards on a marketplace to sell or trade through Fanatics. Topps was a public company before being taken private following a $385 million deal in 2007. The company was founded in 1938 and became well known for its distribution of trading cards, including the 1952 Mickey Mantle card, one of which sold for $5.2 million in January 2021.
