Whichever option you choose, make sure you respect the rights of the original creators and distributors of the movie and do not share or distribute it illegally. Enjoy watching Naruto Movie 6: Road to Ninja with English subtitles! Here are some more details about the movie and its plot: Naruto Movie 6: Road to Ninja was released in Japan on July 28, 2012 and grossed over 1.46 billion yen, making it the highest-grossing Naruto movie at the time. It was also screened in select theaters in North America, Australia, and Europe in 2014. The movie was written by Masashi Kishimoto, the original creator of Naruto, who also designed the new character designs and the alternate world. The movie begins with a flashback of the Nine-Tailed Fox's attack on Konoha 16 years ago, which was stopped by Naruto's parents, Minato Namikaze and Kushina Uzumaki, who sacrificed their lives to seal the beast inside their newborn son. In the present day, Naruto and Sakura are part of a team led by Kakashi Hatake that is sent to stop a group of rogue ninja who claim to be members of the Akatsuki. After defeating them, Naruto and Sakura return to Konoha and feel dissatisfied with their lives. Naruto wishes he had his parents with him, while Sakura resents her overbearing parents. Meanwhile, the real Madara Uchiha, who is behind the fake Akatsuki, uses a powerful genjutsu called Limited Tsukuyomi to trap Naruto and Sakura in a parallel world where everything is opposite to their reality. In this world, Naruto's parents are alive and respected as heroes, while Sakura's parents are dead and despised as traitors. Naruto and Sakura also have different personalities and abilities: Naruto is shy and timid, while Sakura is confident and aggressive. They also have different relationships with their friends and rivals: Sasuke Uchiha is a cheerful playboy who flirts with Sakura, Hinata Hyuga is a violent stalker who attacks Naruto, Neji Hyuga is a pervert who peeps on girls, Rock Lee is a lazy slacker who sleeps all day, and so on. Naruto and Sakura soon realize that they are in a genjutsu and try to find a way out. They encounter the masked Madara, who reveals that he created this world to lure Naruto out and extract the Nine-Tails from him. He also reveals that he has a partner in this world: Menma Uzumaki, Naruto's counterpart who is the jinchuriki of the Black Nine-Tails. Menma is loyal to Madara and hates Naruto for having his parents' love. Naruto and Sakura team up with their alternate friends to stop Madara and Menma from destroying Konoha with a giant meteor. Along the way, they learn more about themselves and each other, and appreciate what they have in their real world. They also discover that there is a red moon in the sky that is the source of Madara's genjutsu. They manage to break the genjutsu by destroying the moon with a combined Rasengan from Naruto and Menma. Naruto and Sakura return to their own world, where they are greeted by their friends and mentors. They also reconcile with their parents: Naruto thanks his parents for giving him life and protecting him, while Sakura hugs her parents and apologizes for being rude to them. The movie ends with Naruto and Sakura smiling at each other as they walk back to Konoha.
